Please note the following conditions:

- 1 All potential Members and Associates must complete an Application for Membership irrespective of whether fees are due.
2. Extract from the Constitution - "5. Classes of members - The membership of the Association consists of: (a) A Patron; (b) Ordinary members; (c) Service associates; (d) Associates; and (e) Life members.
 - (a) Patron. The Honorary Colonel of the Regiment will be invited to be the Patron of the Association. If the Honorary Colonel does not accept the position, another person may be approached for a fixed term not exceeding the term of the Honorary Colonel's appointment.
 - (b) Ordinary Member. Any person who serves or has served in the Regiment in its present form or its previous forms is eligible to be an Ordinary member. For example, previous members of 4th Cavalry Regiment at the time of transition to the 2/14 LHR (QMI) would be eligible. An Ordinary member has full voting rights and may hold any position in the Association.
 - (c) Service Associate. A Service or Ex-Service person from another existing or past RAAC regiment which does not have an association based in Brisbane; or, a Service or Ex-Service person who is a 'friend' of the Regiment. A 'friend' of the Regiment may, for example, be a person from another Corps who has, or has had, ties with the Regiment. A Service Associate also has full voting rights and may hold a position on a subcommittee or the management committee, other than the President, Secretary or Treasurer.
 - (d) Associate. (1) Partners, adult descendants and 'civilian friends' of the Regiment. A 'civilian friend' of the Regiment is a civilian person who provides, or has provided, a benefit to the Regiment or the Association. An Associate has no voting rights but may hold a position on a subcommittee or the management committee, other than the President, Secretary or Treasurer.
(2) Widow or widower of any soldier who served in the Regiment or was an Ordinary member or Service Associate member of the Association.
 - (e) Life Member. A life member shall be an Association member who in the opinion of the Ordinary / Service Associate members has rendered exceptional service to the Association. A Life member will be nominated by the Management Committee at an Annual General Meeting of the Association and must be elected by a majority of three fourths of Ordinary / Service Associate members present. A Life member shall be exempt from payment of subscriptions and shall be entitled to all the other rights, duties and privileges of an Ordinary member."
- (3) Under the provisions of these Conditions, each person who applies to be admitted as a member of the 2/14 Light Horse Regiment (QMI) Association Inc. shall be deemed to have agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Constitution being in force at the time, a copy of which can be obtained from the Association Secretary.
